Management Commentary

The Trust outperformed the market in September, mainly due to gearing. Top contributors were Tokyo Electron (semiconductor manufacturing equipment), Mitsubishi UFJ Financial (bank) and recruiting/staffing companies such as Recruit and Persol. On the other hand, CyberAgent (internet), MonotaRO (MRO e-commerce) and Pigeon (baby products) were the main detractors due to profit taking. Steady global demand is a tailwind for the Japanese equity market due to the relatively high weight of cyclical manufacturers in the index. Corporate earnings continue to show a strong underlying trend and valuations remain competitive in a global context. Prime Minister Abe has called an election for the Lower House, possibly because of his higher recent poll ratings. Meanwhile, corporate governance continues to be a major focus in Japan: 2016 saw 25% of companies buy back their shares. This increasingly looks like a structural change.

JPMorgan Japanese Investment Trust plc

SECTOR BREAKDOWN AS AT 30 SEPTEMBER 2017 ^h

The Trust is an actively managed portfolio, holdings, sector weights, allocations and leverage, as applicable are subject to change at the discretion of the Investment Manager without notice.

RISK INFORMATION

- Exchange rate changes may cause the value of underlying overseas investments to go down as well as up.
- External factors may cause an entire asset class to decline in value. Prices and values of all shares or all bonds could decline at the same time, or fluctuate in response to the performance of individual companies and general market conditions.
- This trust may utilise gearing (borrowing) which will exaggerate market movements both up and down.
- This trust may also invest in smaller companies which may increase its risk profile.
- The share price may trade at a discount to the Net Asset Value of the company.
- The single market in which the Trust primarily invests, in this case Japan, may be subject to particular political and economic risks and, as a result, the trust may be more volatile than more broadly diversified trusts.

^B Total return - using capital only NAVs with net dividend (if any) reinvested, in sterling, unless otherwise stated. Source: J.P. Morgan/Morningstar (www.morningstar.co.uk)

^C Due to the currently low net asset value and high gearing of the share class, the NAV performance numbers are extremely volatile and therefore none are disclosed.

^D Cum income NAV with debt at fair value, diluted for treasury and/or subscription shares if applicable, with any income reinvested.

^E Source: Morningstar. Prospective dividend yield is indicative and based on mid market prices, and include the declared and net prospective dividends for the current financial year.

^F Gearing represents the excess amount above shareholders' funds of total investments (excluding liquidity fund holdings) expressed as a percentage of the shareholders' funds. If the amount calculated is negative, this is known as a "net cash" position.

^G Ongoing charges are the management fee and all other operating expenses, excluding interest charges on any borrowing and any performance fee payable expressed as a percentage of the average daily net assets during the year. All figures are for the previous financial year.

^H Non-Benchmark holdings (where held) are classified in the appropriate sector/region. Cash is net current assets and holdings used as cash substitutes if applicable.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

BENCHMARK COMPARISON - Comparison of the Company's performance is made with the benchmark. The benchmark is a recognised index of stocks which should not be taken as wholly representative of the Company's investment universe. The Company's investment strategy does not follow or track this index and therefore there may be a degree of divergence between its performance and that of the Company.

CASH - Net current assets including investment in liquidity funds & treasury stocks (if held) and drawn revolving credit facilities (if any) with an original maturity of less than 1 year.

DISCOUNT / PREMIUM - If the share price of an investment company is lower than the net asset value (NAV) per share, the company is said to be trading at a discount. If the share price of an investment company is higher than the net asset value (NAV) per share, the company is said to be trading at a premium. The discount/premium is shown as a percentage of the NAV.

GEARING - Gearing represents the excess amount above shareholders' funds of total assets expressed as a percentage of the shareholders' funds. Total assets include total investments and net current assets/liabilities less cash/cash equivalents and excluding bank loans of less than one year. If the amount calculated is negative this is known as a 'net cash' position.

SECTOR / GEOGRAPHICAL BREAKDOWNS - These are expressed as a percentage of total portfolio and cash. Investments in liquidity funds will be shown as cash.

TOP 10 HOLDINGS - These are expressed as a percentage of total portfolio and cash. Investments in liquidity funds / treasury stocks will not be shown in the top 10 holdings.
