Management Commentary

The trust outperformed over June. Positive contributors to relative returns included stock selection in general retailers and beverages. Detractors included an underweight position in mobile telecommunications and an overweight position in general industrials. An overweight position in UK soft drink provider Fever-Tree was positive for relative returns. After returning more than 90% in 2017, the stock rose a further 50% over the first half of 2018, with continued strong growth in the UK and internationally from its growing range of premium mixers. Our holding in Bellway detracted from performance during the month. Concerns about slowing in the UK housing market, combined with the ongoing political uncertainty around Brexit, have clouded the outlook for UK housebuilders. In common with other UK housebuilders, Bellway has a strong balance sheet, attractive value and cash flow characteristics, and an attractive dividend yield.

SECTOR BREAKDOWN AS AT 31 JULY 2018 <sup>f</sup>

The Trust is an actively managed portfolio, holdings, sector weights, allocations and leverage, as applicable are subject to change at the discretion of the Investment Manager without notice.

RISK INFORMATION

- External factors may cause an entire asset class to decline in value. Prices and values of all shares or all bonds could decline at the same time, or fluctuate in response to the performance of individual companies and general market conditions.
- This trust may utilise gearing (borrowing) which will exaggerate market movements both up and down.
- This trust may also invest in smaller companies which may increase its risk profile.
- The share price may trade at a discount to the Net Asset Value of the company.
- The single market in which the Trust primarily invests, in this case the UK, may be subject to particular political and economic risks and, as a result, the trust may be more volatile than more broadly diversified trusts.
- Companies listed on AIM tend to be smaller and early stage companies and may carry greater risks than an investment in a company with a full listing on the London Stock Exchange.

<sup>b</sup>NAV is the cum income NAV with debt at fair value, diluted for treasury and/or subscription shares if applicable, with any income reinvested. Share price performance figures are calculated on a mid market basis in GBP with income reinvested on the ex-dividend date. <sup>c</sup>Prospective dividend yield is indicative and based on mid market prices, and include the declared and net prospective dividends for the current financial year.

<sup>e</sup>Ongoing charges are the management fee and all other operating expenses, excluding interest charges on any borrowing and any performance fee payable expressed as a percentage of the average daily net assets during the year.

<sup>f</sup>Non-Benchmark holdings (where held) are classified in the appropriate sector/region. Cash is net current assets and holdings used as cash substitutes if applicable.
