Management Commentary

The fund outperformed the benchmark during the month. Fever-Tree, a beverage producer of premium mixers, was the largest contributor, as shares reacted very positively to a strong set of results and an upgrade to company guidance. Keywords Studios, a provider of outsourced technical services to the computer games industry, and FDM, an IT recruitment specialist, also contributed positively as both companies had very good results during the month, leading to significant share price appreciation. The largest detractor was 4imprint, a promotional products provider focused on the US market, which was weak for no fundamental reason.

RISK INFORMATION

- External factors may cause an entire asset class to decline in value. Prices and values of all shares or all bonds could decline at the same time, or fluctuate in response to the performance of individual companies and general market conditions.
- This trust may utilise gearing (borrowing) which will exaggerate market movements both up and down.
- This trust may also invest in smaller companies which may increase its risk profile.
- The share price may trade at a discount to the Net Asset Value of the company.
- The single market in which the Trust primarily invests, in this case the UK, may be subject to particular political and economic risks and, as a result, the trust may be more volatile than more broadly diversified trusts.
- Companies listed on AIM tend to be smaller and early stage companies and may carry greater risks than an investment in a company with a full listing on the London Stock Exchange.
